

IDN IAN

Who am I? I work at a network of health care providers and institutions all under one company that delivers care to a defined population. This is often on the payer or specialty drug side.

PAINS:

- I have budgetary constraints and need to better allocate resources
- I want to stay current on regulatory and legislative changes
- I could better understand the health care environment and stakeholders
- I'm managing a large volume of information
- I don't have enough time to do everything!

MOTIVATIONS:

- Knowledge, education, clinical practices/care
- Save health care dollars and become a revenue center
- Gain leadership skills
- Advance in my career and grow professional skills

AMCP GAIN CREATORS:

- Connect with individuals from different phases of care (payers, pharma, etc.) at AMCP Annual Meeting, Nexus, and at Affiliate events in your area to increase your understanding and break down barriers
- Build your leadership skills by volunteering on an AMCP committee
- Gain information that helps you prepare for regulatory and legislative changes through AMCP newsletters, social media networks, and alerts
- Learn about new research and updates on biosimilars through the AMCP Research Institute and BBCIC
- Attend an educational session or webinar on AMCP Learn to build your expertise on key issues that can help with resource allocations

STORY

Perhaps the most invaluable aspect of my AMCP membership has been the opportunity to actively contribute to the advancement of managed care pharmacy. Through participation in various committees, affiliates, and advocacy initiatives, I have had the privilege of working alongside industry leaders and fellow members on projects that have the potential to impact policy, practice, and patient care on a national scale. Being involved in these endeavors has not only sharpened my skills as a professional but has also instilled in me a deep sense of purpose and fulfillment. I am eternally grateful for the transformative impact that AMCP has had on my career.

– Angelica Asadi | IDN Employee and AMCP Member since 2015